Special Placing Grand Champion Market Chickens

Description

Hi, my name is Jamie Schafer and this is my first year in market chickens. Raising market chickens has been a stack of fun and hard work!! These little poker chips can eat and eat all day!! When they first arrive they are cute little chicks but now they look like tasty chicken nuggets! My goal for market chickens is to produce big and heavy birds that will do well at fair. Come on by the chicken barn and see my poker chips as they are stacked high!!
