Description

This is Beau, my boer goat. I acquired him on February 22nd of 2020 from a breeder near the Fresno area. He has plenty of personality and likes to be independent. Beau was born in late October of 2019 giving him time to develop an attitude before I got to meet him and raise him. This has been a challenge for my fellow members and I while we try to raise our goat siblings because they are a close knit group of brothers. Thankfully, with the continuous work and time put into the goats they have let us become closer to them and create a bond with our animals. I have learned in this experience that each animal has a personality, just like humans, and a trust needs to be built between the two species in order to create a friendship and bond.
