Description

My name is Stephanie Van Ness and I am a fourth year member of Lodi FFA and just graduated from Lodi High School. This is my fourth year raising a market goat. This year has been unique for me, breeding my own goat and raising him since birth. I have learned so much from this experience, including what goes into the breeding process, how to care for baby goats, and the important medical steps to insure their health. This has been a huge learning experience for me and I have enjoyed every minute of it. Raising a goat this year has been a very unique experience!
