Description

My name is Khloe Lombardo and this is my market goat Jones named after Indiana Jones. I have exercised him daily and feed him the best diet possible. I bathed him 3 days a week and conditioned his hide every time. I have given this goat the best life possible and in return he has taught me alot about patience and kindness. Determination and dedication have played a big part in raising this goat to the best of my ability. I am excited to used the profits of the sale of Jones to put into my next year project and the genetics for my breeding project. Thank you very much for your support and I am very grateful for your generosity. I am excited to be a part of the future of agriculture!
