Description

This is my market hog, Hambino, a Hampshire gilt. I have been raising her since January. I have been feeding her a high quality diet to make sure she is show and sale ready. I have spent countless hours walking her and caring for her. This is my 3rd year showing swine. Each year I learn more about the health and nutrition of my market hogs. Please support my 4-H project. You will be pleased with this pork producer.
