Description

Hi, my name is Abigail Samuel and for my 4-H project this year I raised a market boer goat. His name is Buddy and he has a great personality. I purchased him on March 13th and he weighed 48 pounds and now he is 82 pounds which is great. My greatest accomplishment with him was having him halter trained a couple weeks after I got him. I had some ups and downs with him but in the end he turned out to be an amazing goat. I really enjoy raising market goats and the responsibility it teaches me. It has been a very rewarding experience and I look forward to it every year. Thank you for taking the time to read about Buddy.
