Description

My name is Brad Hagglund, and I recently graduated from Escalon High School. This year I am showing my market goat Pope for the San Joaquin County Ag Fest. The months that I have put into this project have truly sharpened my ability to be a responsible, well-managed, and mature person. I purchased Pope in early January, and since then it has been my duty to manage his growth, stay up to date on his health needs, and prepare him for show time. While the coronavirus might have halted life, me and my fellow exhibitors responsibilities to our animals still remain. I plan on using the proceeds from my animal to help further my education at Cal Poly beginning this fall.
