Description

This is my Hampshire Market Swine named "Boss Hog." He is my first market project for 4H. I am not from a farm family but a good friend has allowed me to raise Boss at his farm. I bought him in February and learned quick that swine are smart as dogs. Boss will chase a ball, stick and little brothers! He loves his tummy scratched, baths and to be hosed down with water. It was a bit frustrating after getting him super clean and him finding mud to roll in immediately. I have enjoyed learning how to feed and care for him. I learned how to feed him to maintain his healthy weight in different weather and situations. I got pretty lucky with him; our only issue was pink eye when I first bought him but with proper care it was cured quickly. I wish I could show him in a real fair auction because he is a really good looking, strong and "meaty" animal.
