Description

Hello,

My name is Ryan Mattos, and I am presently attending Merced High School. This is my very 1st year participating in FFA, as a freshman. I am currently involved in the Merced High School FFA sheep co-op and my project this year is raising one market lamb. New to high school and FFA, I was introduced to FFA by family members through floral which I gained a love from watching my Grandma at her shop when I was younger. This then spread to all aspects of FFA like showing and becoming involved in the floral team. I have taken a lot of pride in doing this project, and I know for sure that I will continue throughout the rest of my highschool years.

My lamb, Blu, is a male lamb. He is a Hamp Suffolk Cross lamb. He is a very loving, calm lamb. He eats lamb slam which has all the qualities to produce a quality meat for you and your family. From this project, I have learned responsibility and gained so much knowledge about raising a market lamb. I have been responsible for making sure that my lamb was well taken care of. I put in many hours with feeding, water, shelter, bathing, shearing and training him for his big day.

Thank You All
