Description

Hello, my name is Alexis Melo. I have been showing pigs for 7 years and I always have an amazing time. This year has not been so good due to covid-19, but we are still making the best of it. I showed for 4h for 5 years and showed for FFA for 2 years. This year my pig is a hamp and i love him. He weighs 251 pounds and is stubborn sometimes, but in the end he is good. I love working with my pig even though I know sometimes he does not like working with me. Being in FFA also helps me manage my time because I play travel softball and that will take up a lot of my time. I also have school and during the summer we have summer homework for my Ag/ Science classes. It does feel like a lot sometimes, but I love playing softball and showing my pig. They both allow me to meet new people, learn how to deal with obstacles and help me manage my time.
