Description

My name is Mohrgan Fry and I'm an 18-year-old senior at Lodi High School. I graduated at the end of May and will be headed to Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo in September. There I will be studying ASM, Ag Systems Management. This will be my fourth and final year selling a market hog at AgFest. This year I decided to try something new, I got a gilt(female) instead of a barrow(male). Honey is a Yorkshire swine with very good conformation, especially on her ham and back. On May 4th she weighed 175 lbs, so by mid-June she should be about 240 lbs. Getting Honey ready for AgFest has been educational, challenging, and exciting! Raising her has taught me to be more responsible, compassionate, and caring. The earnings I make this year I will put into my college fund for Cal Poly. I have learned a lot about agriculture and raising animals through my Ag teacher and the FFA program at school. Growing up in a farming family I have had more experiences than most kids in the agriculture department, especially because my dad, Bruce Fry is a 5th generation family farmer for Mohr-Fry Ranches. He has been a huge influence on my life, and I hope to carry on in his footsteps after college.
