Description

My name is Noah Gutierrez and I am with Farmington 4H. This is my second year doing market goats. Last year my goat died unexpectedly 2 weeks before AgFest, so I was unable to participate in the auction. It was very frustrating as I had spent lots of time, energy, and money on my goat, but I learned a lot through that process. This year, I was really looking forward to participating in AgFest since last year didn't work out, so I was disappointed when the in-person auction was cancelled. I am hoping to raise enough money to purchase my goat for next year, so that I can finally participate in the AgFest activities. I have enjoyed raising my goat, Dwight, this year and have learned so much during this process. It was challenging to work with him every day, but it was rewarding to see the progress that he made the longer that I worked with him. Dwight got 3rd place in his weight class for AgFest this year, so I am excited about that.

I hope that you will consider buying Dwight, and thank you for taking the time to read this. I really appreciate your consideration.
