Description

Hello, my name is Ava Flores, This will be my second year showing market swine for Merced FFA. This would be the first time that we are showing are swine project virtually and It has taught us more responsibility to uphold are animals, being that we are not going to fair. Since February I have been raising a crossbred glut and through the months it has been apparent that she has been putting on good muscle definition she is wide-bodied as well as the good overall structure. Her current weight is 260, and grow I hope you can come and support me and everyone else in this virtual show Thank you.
