Description

This year for the San Joaquin County Ag Fest, I raised a market hog which I purchased on February 7, 2020. From Generation X farms, located in Merced California. At the time of purchase my pig weighed around 40 pounds and has been steadily gaining weight thanks to the help of generation x pig feed. I also have been working very hard by walking, training and interacting with my pig on a daily basis. In effort to provide my pig with the best possible life and train it to perform at the best of its ability during this year's virtual show and the sale of my pig.
