Description

My name is Sergio Nava and I am a Sophomore at Le Grand High School and member of Le Grand FFA. This is my second year showing a lamb with my FFA chapter. I bought my lamb from Leventini Club Lambs in February and have been raising it at my high school's on campus school farm.

My lamb's name is Jenny and she is a ewe lamb. She recently weighed 140 pounds on June 6th. She is a very complete ewe lamb with a lot to offer. I have taken very good care of her over the past several months. I weigh out her food twice a day every day, keep track of her weight gain, exercise her, and wash and shear her to prepare for fair. I don't come from a livestock background, so I have learned a tremendous amount about sheep over the past two years.

Even though fair being canceled is very disappointing, I truly enjoy the experience raising sheep and being involved in the FFA and agriculture. I am a student in our school's Ag. Academy, compete in public speaking competitions, and attend leadership conferences.

Thank you for taking time out of your day and learning more about my lamb, Jenny and myself! I hope that you consider purchasing her or supporting me in my future fair projects. Thanks again for your interest and support of FFA and 4H members!
