Description

Hello my name is Elijah May and this is currently my first year in FFA. I have been working every day to make sure my goat is fed and watered daily while brushing and bathing when needed. My favorite part about this project has been exercising my goat daily by walking, running and jumping my goat. I am excited to use the showmanship I have been taught through my video submission for the online fair. The money I make from selling her will go towards paying my parents back for the money spent purchasing my goat and feed that I have needed throughout this project, any left over money will go towards next year's project. If you are unable to purchase my goat, any support is welcome. I will gladly accept donations here are some of my expenses a bag of feed is $20, shavings for the pen are $10-15 and a bale of alfalfa is $20.
