Description

I am selling my lamb Reggie for my senior year 4H project. I got him from local breeders who I have used for five years. I got him in February and he weighed 86 pounds, he has always been a super friendly lamb which made him fun to work with. Due to corona I learned to be more self reliant because my leaders were not able to have group practices or see my animal as frequently. Although I cannot show in the ring this year it is always rewarding to work with a new animal.
