Description

This year my market lamb's name is BooBoo, I got her from the Morino Bro's in Escalon, Ca. I have received market lambs from this breeder for the last 3 years. We started our projects in March and since then I have greatly bonded and cared for my animal. During the time that I have had my project I have had to watch how much she was gaining in weight and adjust the amount of feed we were giving to allow her to grow at the proper speed. My lamb this year weighs a total of 116 pounds, so if you are looking to buy a medium sized lamb, she is for you!
