Description

Hi! My name is Emily Bertuccio, and I am a sophomore at Golden Valley High school. At 10 years old I got involved in 4-H which I honestly did not want to do but my parents always told me it will one day help me in the future, I ended up loving it, the interactions with people and all the new things I learned about agriculture and animals. Now carrying into FFA, I have showed goats for 5 years now and each year I learn something new about goats. But this year I decided to try something new, a pig. I ended up loving it. But I was bummed to hear that the fair was going to be happening this year but I was glad to hear that the fair was still putting on this online auction of all us showmen. The hog that I am selling is named Walter, a very well built hog. I would love it if you would support me so I could pursue further FFA projects which will one day help me in the future. Thank you!
