Description

Hi! My name is Brooke Wareham and I am a Senior in the Stone Ridge Christian High School FFA. This is my first and final project in livestock. This year has been amazing amidst the many challenges. This year may have been different; however I can say I am blessed! A big thank you to all the people who have supported me throughout this year and are supporting me in this auction. There is not enough words to express my grateful heart during these crazy times! Thanks again for looking into my lamb!
