Description

My market hogs name is Charlie, he is an AOB that I aquired on February 7th from a breeder in Modesto, California.

I didnt want to name him only because I got too attached last year and it was difficult. However, Charlie had such a great personality from the moment I purchased him my mom made me name him. Charlie has the personality of a dog and is very friendly. If you rubbed his belly he would fall over and play dead.

This is my second year raising a Hog and I have learned alot of responsibility. Always making sure he had food and his pen was clean and comfortable. I kept Charlie at our 4-H presidents house who lives about 10 miles from from my house. It was a great way to practice my driving skills. My mom and I would go twice a day to feed and she would always let me drive.

Not only do I raise my Hog but I keep a record of my expenses. I always pay back my parents for the price of the pig and they allow me to save the rest. When I keep the records it allows me to understand the expense in raising animals. Thank you
