Description

My name is Reena Grewal. I am a freshman at Livingston High School and this is my first year raising a market hog. This year I raised a hampshire barrow. As a first year member I have been able to have my first experience owning an animal! I have learned the amount of time and management that goes into a project and have gained valuable experience. Next year I plan to fund my project thru the proceeds from this auction. Thank you for supporting youth agriculture!!

Attached is a video of my project!
