Description

Hello, my name is Aiyana Ellison and this is my goat, Jeffrey. Something interesting about my goat is that is a little stubborn at times but he loves going on walks and he is a sweetheart. This is my second year showing goats but my first year exhibiting at the Merced Fair. For the past two years I have worked at my chapter's school farm and more specifically with the breeding goat herd. My FFA chapter has a small herd of eight does. I helped with feeding, cleaning, parturition, and caring for the baby goats up to weaning. Jeffrey actually came from that herd and I helped care for him when he was born. Through this experience, I have learned what it takes to raise a market animal from start to finish and how much work is involved in the process.
