Description

Hello everyone my name is Amaris Flores and I am the owner of Mango, a very inquisitive and cute pig. This year has provided many challenges in raising a pig for fair. Many of us students have missed out on the wonderful and challenging experiences of physically being at the San Joaquin County State fair, but I believe we did as best as we could. Mango was raised with two other pigs Chop and Poncho in Acampo Ca. While the pigs thrived in each others company, it provided us students with a whole new set of challenges. Such as making sure not just one, but all three of the pigs were cared for properly, when at times there was just one of us students out there. Or how two out of the three pigs were easier to shave and better behaved when it came to commands. Despite some restrictions and circumstances, I did enjoy the commitment of raising Mango for fair. This experience has taught me about being flexible to change.
