Description

Meet my Boer goat, I got him on february 18 from a breeder in Vernalis California when he weighed about 53 pounds. The goat is a male and his name is Billy, he loves to play, he stands on his two ack lags when he is playing. Billy is a happy goat that loves attention. When his hooves grew a little we would trim them. I also gave him lots of baths to stay clean. Ive walked him daily since I got him. He is one healthy strong and nice looking goat. Ive learned that its a lot to take care of a goat and how to clip his hooves and what type of feed is good for them, I have learned how to brace an animal which I didnt even know what bracing was. Having this goat and taking care of it has prepared me for when I choose to take care of another goat. I loved doing this project, Ive gotten so close with Billy and he has learned to like me.
